Sir:

In response to the Office Communication dated September 13, 2007, Applicants offer the following response. The communication referenced above request indication as to which provision of the code of Federal Regulations applicants are invoking to file a declaration executed on behalf of one of the inventors by his legal representative.

First, with regard to which provision applicants are relying on, Applicants state for the record that the declaration signed by the legal representative of John Burgess is filed pursuant to 37 CFR § 1.42. In the present case, inventor John Burgess is deceased and his legal representative, his wife Mrs. Jill Burgess, a United Kingdom citizen having the same address as inventor John Burgess (85 Home Park Road, Wimbledon, London, SW19 7HF, United Kingdom) executed the oath and signed her name (J. Burgess) to the oath in her capacity as legal representative. Accordingly, Applicants believe that they have complied with all of the requirements in filing an Oath and Declaration under 37 CFR § 1.42.

The examiner is invited to telephone the undersigned, applicant's attorney of record, to facilitate advancement of the present application.

Respectfully submitted,

Burgess et al.
